History - Present church is the fourth building at the third sitePUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHSto bear the name. An early St. Patrick's was a Greek Revival building of wood (ca.PUBLISHED DRAWINGS1852) originally on site of Palace Hotel (now Parish Hall of Holy Cross Church on Eddy). The later St. Patrick's of brick, in the Victorian Gothic style (built 1870) was burned in the fire of 1906. The present

church is a rebuilding at the same site, following the basic forms of its predecessor.

Description - 3-story brick, with 4-story central facade tower. Lancet windows and pier buttresses of the burned church retained; more "archaeological" details of pinnacles and tower, figure niche appear to be 20th century.
